

Hello everyone and welcome to this week's What's Happening. Remember, if you can't listen to Old time music over the air log on to KTEA-fm.com and listen as we stream our signal into your computer. If you are a facebook member I also invite you to join our ktea group. You'll receive updates and invites to KTEA events. If you don't know how to join a group just email whatshappening@ktea-fm.com and I will invite you to join. This is easter week and I'd like to take the time to spot light one of the Easter Services happening in Cambria. I have a young daughter who loves to get up at the crack of dawn to search for all the dyed easter eggs she left for the Easter Bunny to hide for her. Then, we rush off to church to celebrate again. I can never quite seem to squeeze breakfast in. Well, The First Baptist Church has fixed that for me and for you and your family this year. Enjoy your egg hunt and then go on over to the Church at the Corner of Ardash and Highway one, they are offering a Brunch at 9am with the service to follow at 10am (that's half an hour earlier). The children and adult choirs will be singing during the service and Pastor Chris Law will inspire you with his Easter sermon. I'll be there and I invite you to come too. If you've never been to The First Baptist Church before, it doesn't matter, you'll be welcomed with a smile and open arms.

I am midway through reading a first novel by Sheila Garcia called "Lifesigns". This novel is an imaginative and multifaceted story, told through time and travel. We enter two lives Elizabeth McClellan and her past life self, Lady Sarah. Their lives and modern day Elizabeth's dreams are intertwined as Elizabeth sets off on a mental and physical journey to read and understand the signs these paranormal events have given her. Set in modern day San Francisco, 1850's England and even a brief visit to Cambria, Sheila gives us a reason to find out why we interact with people the way we do. This is a limited release novel so I invite you to attend the author's book signing here in Cambria to learn more. Sheila will be at Lily's coffee house, located at 2028 Main Street Saturday April 3rd from 10am until 2pm.

Area artists are invited to enter the eighth annual Art in the Pines event. This special event will be juried by artist Kristopher Doe, who has more than 25 years of experience. Cash prizes will be offered. The show will open with a reception for the artists from 530 until 730pm on Friday, April 9 at the Allied Arts Gallery at the Old grammar school site. Entries are to be delivered to the gallery from 10 until noon on Tuesday April 6. For additional information, including entry fees see the gallery section of the organizations website, www.artistsofcambria.com.

Cambria's chili cook-off and car show takes place at Vet's Hall and the pinedorado ground on Saturday April 17 from 10 until 4pm. Come vote for your favorite car and cast your vote for your favorite chili too!

Our good friends from All American Video will receive food donations all year long during their regular business hours. So, the next time you head out to rent a movie, pick up any electronic gizmos or printer ink grab a can, boxed juice, peanut butter or macaroni. It could be the easiest way yet to donate to the food bank. That's at All American Video located on Tamson drive in Cambria.

This portion of What's Happening is brought to you by The Tea Cozy. Come and join us for lunch or tea in a calm and relaxing atmosphere. Many of our teas are hand blended by us just for you. This month spring rushes in with an asparagus and brie tea sandwich, lemon and cream cake for dessert and Salmon Wellington with Hollandaise sauce for our lunch special. We can serve a refreshing Elderflower cordial or try our White Cherry Tea for a taste of spring. Make your reservation for The Tea Cozy by phoning 927-8765 and ask for Barry. For our listeners streaming from other areas you can order gifts, tea and groceries from The Tea Cozy by going to www.teacozy.com. This is Lee Anne and I welcome your thoughts and suggestions for the show, please email whatshappening@ktea-fm.com. You are listening to 103.5fm. Old time radio for the central coast.
